Introduce Young People to Boating

JORDAN D. S/V 'LEGACY'

YMCA OPTI SAILING SCHOOL

SMALLEY'S GRANDKIDS ON C DOCK

JENN & TODD L. NEPHEW, GABE

You are never too young to start boating. Lew Grimm had a family friend who took him boating. It was only a year later when Rex Grimm, Lew's father bought the family a 17' powerboat and 50 years later, here we are! Over the 19 years as owners of DYC, we have seen babies through young adults be introduced to sailboats and powerboats. Always use PFDs that are properly sized and teach your family boat and dock safety first. Memories are made aboard that will be with these young people forever. For more information about opportunities to teach your family about boating contact info@dycboat.com and we will help. ↓

Expanding Boatel Racks

BOATEL RACKS PRE ASSEMBLY

Deltaville Boatel clients have noticed the ongoing project related to expansion of DYC Boatel racks. The larger racks will allow DYC to better meet the need of boaters. Thank you for your patience as this project is completed. ↓

DYC Keeping it Clean for Future Boaters

DELTAVILLE YACHTING CENTER MIDDLESEX COUNTY'S 1ST VIRGINIA CLEAN MARINA

Each year DYC works to keep the surrounding waterways clean for current and future boaters. In September Dan H., Mike G. and Onna Grimm participated in the Clean Waterways clean up, calculating types of items cleaned up so that International Coastal Clean Up and Ocean Conservancy can better educate the public about preventing litter. Marine debris is easily contained and boaters should realize that litter ends up in the waterways long term. Top 10 litter items are : Cigarette Butts, food/candy wrappers, plastic beverage bottles, plastic grocery bags, plastic bottle caps, beverage cans, glass bottles, foam & plastic cups/plates and plastic lids.

In 2002, Deltaville Yachting Center became Middlesex County's 1st Virginia Clean Marina. In 2019, DYC recertified as a Va. Clean Marina and is happy to promote practices that teach environmental care. ↓

DYC Loads John Smith Explorer Headed to Canada

Deltaville Yachting Center loaded the Deltaville Maritime Museum's reproduction of John Smith's shallop, 'The Explorer' on a truck heading to Canada. In August the boat was destined for use in a Canadian documentary. It has been used in over 15 such projects. Visit Deltaville Maritime Museum and Holly Point Nature Park the next time you are in Deltaville. You will be amazed at the exhibits about John Smith, Deltaville boat building history and many other changing displays. ↓

Barn Quilt Trail of Middlesex County

LOOK FOR THESE AROUND MIDDLESEX & DYC SOON

Barn Quilts are representations of a quilt block, painted on a board and placed on a barn, fence, shed house or posts. These blocks are then coordinated by a group to establish a trail, throughout Middlesex County, mapped out with locations and a small story about each block. At the time of this writing Middlesex has 3 Barn Quilt Squares mounted, 2 have been delivered to be displayed soon, and 1 is in the process of being painted. It is the hope of the Middlesex Barn Quilt Trail that they would have 10 blocks up to establish a trail for visitors and locals to see in all areas of our beautiful county. The volunteer group who design and paint these blocks in Middlesex County may be reached through email Barnquilttrailofmiddlesex@gmail.com.

Deltaville Yachting Center has commissioned a Barn Quilt Square with a yellow and red sunshine, to represent a sunny attitude and The SON, our Lord Jesus Christ. We hope to mount the barn quilt square on DYC's Paint Barn facing Rt. 33. ↓
